

UKSCA's Accredited Members' Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Model

Background

Continued Professional Development (CPD) is a well-recognised and valued component of maintaining and developing knowledge and skills within a profession. As an association keen to support its members and generate a culture of development within our professional sphere, the UKSCA has developed a CPD Model for Accredited members. It is hoped that this process will contribute to maintaining a high professional standard in the UK and also raise the level of importance of CPD to employers who wish to maintain the professional status of their staff.

How does the UKSCA's CPD Model work?

The level of CPD activity required is based on a credits scheme, whereby credits are awarded for activities that will develop the specific coaching skills, knowledge and understanding of the coach and also those which will further the professional field or support its representative body in the UK (the UKSCA).

As well as subscription renewal, each accredited member will have to attain 100 CPD credits over two years from the date they first became accredited, to retain membership status. The list of activities and their associated credits are detailed in the table on page 4. Please note, a maximum of 60 credits can be awarded for any single activity section.

The current proposed list of activities is not intended to remove autonomy from strength and conditioning coaches, who are still responsible for identifying their own professional development needs. However, it is intended as a guidance framework for rating CPD activities that professionals choose to undertake. It is therefore at this stage we would welcome suggestions from members as to other appropriate CPD activities that individuals feel should be included in the list.

If you have any suggested activity that isn't covered in the model, then please log it with as much detail as possible and allocate 999 credits – this will then be picked up and assessed by the panel.

What does this mean for me?

- Keep your membership payments up to date
- Submit an up to date first aid qualification certificate
- Attain 100 CPD credits over a two-year period
- Submit a completed copy of your CPD log, including any requested evidence to support the CPD activities you have undertaken (this is to be done every 2 years)
- Complete the reflections sections sufficiently we strongly recommend you give thoughtful, useful reflections of the activity. This will help you identify the relevance of your CPD activity to your daily work life and will also service as a reminder of what was learnt.

The UKSCA scheme is largely self-certifying, therefore, all accredited members will submit their logs and the UKSCA will randomly audit* 20%. If you are selected for audit, we will inform you of this in writing. You will be requested to submit all the evidence required for each entry on your CPD log.

Please note, some activities require evidence whether you are chosen for audit or not – these are highlighted in the model.

When do I need to submit my CPD log and what period should I cover?

This is based on the date you first became accredited with the UKSCA.

Use the chart below to determine your CPD cycle period. You will be required to submit your log soon after you cycle end date and will be reminded by email.

What happens if I don't or cannot submit by the deadline?

If you are not able to submit by the deadline or feel that you can't meet the 100 credits requirement, then please contact us as soon as possible so that the CPD Panel can consider your circumstances.

- o If you submit by deadline with more than 75 credits, then your accredited status will be maintained and you will be given an additional 6 months meet the required number of credits.
- o If you submit with less than 75 credits then you will still be given the additional 6 months to meet the required 100 credits, but your accredited status will be removed during this period.
- Those who do not submit by the deadline will automatically be audited as part of their next CPD cycle and are also required to pay a £150 re-submission fee when they do re-submit.

What happens if I have had a career break?

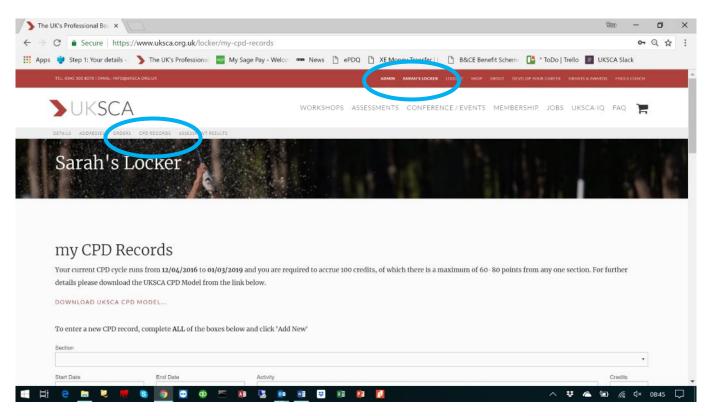

If you have had a career break during your CPD cycle (eg maternity leave, sabbatical), then please contact the office asap. On submission of evidence, your CPD cycle will be extended to take into account your career break.

First Aid Requirement

Accredited members are also required to keep your First Aid qualification up to date. Please include your current First Aid certificate (minimum 6 hours) with your submission if you are able to. Please note that online First Aid courses are not accepted. Please also note that as a mandatory requirement, general First Aid courses cannot be counted as an activity towards your CPD credits, however attendance at the new UKSCA First Aid for Sport & Gyms will count as 10 credits.

How do I submit?

Online: log into the UKSCA website and use the CPD log facility found under 'Your Locker/CPD' – see below

- Please note that your CPD cycle start and end dates will be shown when you log in. If you log an activity with a start or end date outside of these dates, then the system will not recognise the credits.
- For example:
  - o if your cycle runs from 1/10/20 to 30/9/22 and you have been working full-time for the same employer since 2019, then you should enter the dates 1/10/20-30/9/22 for the credits to count in this cycle.
  - o if you entered 1/10/19 to 30/9/22 this entry would not show in this current cycle (as the start date is before the cycle start date).

UKSCA's Accredited Members' CPD Model – Credits Table

The credit table is made up of 5 sections and we encourage members to choose CPD activities from a range of these. As such, you can only claim a maximum number of credits per section, per cycle.
